It's called "Mammoth" for a reason! Set in the Eastern Sierras, Mammoth is big, but their reputation for fun is even bigger! At 11,053 feet elevation, Mammoth Mountain boasts the highest summit of any California resort. This is a mid-week ski trip and nothing beats the wide open terrain, low crowds, best snow conditions and all the California sunshine you can handle! Terrain ranges from cruisers all the way to "pucker up and hang on!" Mammoth truly has something for every level of skier.

We will fly into Reno, Nevada, take a 3 hour scenic cruise down HWY 395 (Private Motorcoach) into Mammoth Lakes, California. We will spend 6 nights at the historic Alpenhof Lodge situated in the center of the Village and steps from the Village Gondola, restaurants and shopping. It is also situated on the free transit line that can take you wherever you need to go around town. The Alpenhof Lodge hosts Petra's Bistro and Wine Bar, and the Clocktower Cellar Pub offering a perfect spot for relaxation and fun after a day of skiing!
